CONTRACT FOR SERVICE AND OIL SUPPLY

Herein is a long list of services Paragon will gladly provide to you, our valued customer. Our services to you come with your satisfaction as our goal. However, in order for Paragon to provide you with these and all other services, whether or not you pay for them, you, the customer, hereby accept the following terms & conditions that will be the basis of our relationship from this day forward.

Terms and Conditions :

Customer agrees that from this day forward, all bills will be paid on time. If bills become delinquent, customer hereby accepts the additional finance charge of 1.5% monthly which equals 18% annually. Customer also accepts legal fees, expenses, and administrative fees, and will pay for all services and fuel oil at the non-discounted rate instead of any quoted discounted rate or instead of any free services rendered. Customer understands that a malfunctioning heating unit may cause a serious fire or explosion which may even burn the house down. To prevent such tragedies the customer hereby accepts the responsibility of shutting off the burner and keeping it off until such time that the customer is ready to perform the upgrade or replacement of the malfunctioning devices. Should a fire or explosion occur, customer hereby absolves the Oil Company & Service Company from any and all liability.
